

Dear Changing Seasons Federal Credit Union Potential Volunteer:

Thank you for your interest in serving as a volunteer for Changing Seasons Federal Credit Union. As a not-for-profit financial cooperative, our Directors, Associate Directors and Committee Members serve in a non-compensated, volunteer capacity with the primary objective of representing the best interest of our members, while maintaining the financial strength of the credit union. Volunteerism can be an extremely rewarding opportunity, as you will provide leadership in the future direction of the organization. We ask that you review the following information, along with your time availability, in consideration of this role. If you are interested in pursuing a role further, please complete the attached Volunteer Application. Thank you again for your interest in serving.

Board Members

Structure and Term

The Board of Directors is a seven person body elected by the members of the credit union for terms of up to three years. The board provides general direction and control of the credit union. The Executive Committee includes the Board Chair, Vice Chair, and Treasurer/Secretary.

Associate Board Members

Structure and Term

Associate Board Members are appointed by the Board of Directors and basically serve in a similar capacity as a Board Member, without the responsibility of voting. On the job training is provided where the Associate Board attends all board meetings and learns the process of what it takes to run the credit union. There are up to three Associate Board Members who serve no specific term, but are groomed to ultimately serve as a regular Board Member.

Committee Members

Structure and Term

The first two regular committees (ALCO and Board Governance) are comprised of at least one board member, one associate board member, one management staff member. The Board of Directors is charged with appointing all committee members at the credit union's annual meeting held in April of each year.

- ALCO Committee – oversees the financial health of the credit union by reviewing financial information, budgets, rates on loans, dividends on deposit accounts, etc.
- Board Governance – develops and updates policies and procedures regarding the board and committees.
- Marketing – oversees all of the marketing activity, membership development, credit union branding, etc.
- Supervisory Committee - There are up to five people who serve on this committee and their major responsibilities are:
 - Ensuring an external audit is completed annually through the engagement of an audit firm
 - Ensuring a member account verification is completed every two years
 - Performing periodic cash counts and ensuring internal control policies are adhered to
 - Providing oversight of internal control activities
